Spotlight Firm: Tetra Tech

Tetra Tech is a $1.2B environmental consulting, engineering and remediation company with 28 offices in the Southwest Division. We have completed about $200M in projects for the Tulsa District and other local government customers. Our 960 local personnel have performed environmental compliance services and remediation, construction and emergency response for EPA Region 6, Holloman AFB, Tinker AFB, Fort Bliss, Lone Star AAP, NAS Dallas and others.

Tetra Tech has a customer service business environment where our customers play a key partnering role in the development and success of projects. Daily customer interactions ensure no surprises, and customer satisfaction is our measurement of success. We engage feedback through a Client Service Quality questionnaire where customers evaluate and grade our performance. Tetra Tech is also the leading large business supporter of small business initiatives. The firm recently received the U.S. Small Business Administration's Frances Perkins Vanguard Award for exemplary women-owned business utilization, and previously has received SBA's Eisenhower Award for overall SB support as well as two Nunn-Perry awards for mentoring.

Tetra Tech is supporting the Army's redevelopment of Iraq and has 400 personnel deployed in-country for management and destruction of captured enemy ammunition stockpiles.
