2025 & the Arkansas River Corridor Master Plan

Thank you to Cynthia Kitchens for the Arkansas River Corridor presentation and to Weston Solutions, Inc. for sponsoring our October meeting. We had a great turn out and were able to present a check for $2000 to the Blue Star Mothers of Broken Arrow for their stockings for the troops overseas.

The Blue Star Mothers of Broken Arrow are now collecting APO and FPO addresses with names for their Christmas List. If you have a name with an APO or FPO address, you can send it to Loretta Turner and she will make sure it gets on the list.

2006 TULSA SAME BOARD

Tulsa SAME will be selecting individuals for 2006 Board positions soon!

If you would like to serve on the Board as an Officer or on a Committee please let one of our current board members or

Ms. Donna Weinkauf,

Past President, know.

CIVIL AIR PATROL $100 CHALLENGE

The Tulsa Post SAME provided a $1,500 donation to the Civil Air Patrol StarBase Squadron for promoting professional military leadership among the youth of today. The Civil Air Patrol is an outstanding organization which builds responsible citizens for America through a positive approach to aerospace, leadership, and life skills.

Additionally, Tulsa Post SAME members have collected $500 to date for the Civil Air Patrol Uniform Fund. Thank you to our contributors, LtCol John Blickensderfer, Mr. John Roberts, Mr. Chris Strunk for their $100 contributions and to ASSET Group for their $200 contribution. Additionally, ASSET Group has pledged to provide all future flags to the StarBase Squadron.

LtCol Blickensderfer has challenged all SAME members to donate $100 to the Civil Air Patrol Uniform Fund. This fund assists the students with the purchase of uniforms and accoutrements.
